Subject: Regarding use of Millets under Mid Scheme.

Sir/ Madam,

Find enclosed herewith the copy of D.O. No-4-6/2018-MDM-1-1(EE.5) Dated 06th September 2019 received from the Government of India, Ministry of Human Resource & Development, Department of School Education and Literacy, New Delhi vide which it has been desired by the GOI to promote use of Millets under Mid Day Meal in schools as they are rich source of calcium, iron, protein, fibere and other minerals which are essential for the growth and development of bones of the children. In this context the GOI, MHRD has apprised that Millets are Known as "Mota Anaj" Jowar (Great Millet) Bajra (Pearl Millet) Ragi (Finger Millet), Arke (Kodo Millet) are the most Prominent millets. It has been further apprised that millets are nutrient dense complete food article and inclusion of millet and millet based receipe under Mid Day Meal Scheme (MDMS) will go a long way to address nutritional requirements of children who face malnutrition.

In this regard, you are therefore, advised to take suitable steps to identify the millets as per food habits in your district at local level and include in the Mid Day Meal in schools in preferred frequency and action taken report (ATR) may be furnished to this Directorate, so that the same could be shared with the GOI through State Government accordingly.

Dated the 6th September, 2019

Dear Sir / Madam,

As you are aware Millets are known as "Mota Anaj". Jowar (Great Millet), Bajra (Pearl Millet), Ragi (Finger Millet), Arke (Kodo Millet) are the most prominent millets. Millets are rich source of calcium, iron, protein, fibre and other minerals which are essential for the growth and development of bones of the children.

2. You would agree that millets are nutrient dense complete food article and inclusion of millet and millet based recipe under Mid Day Meal Scheme (MDMS) will go a long way to address nutritional requirements of millions of children who face malnutrition. You are, therefore, advised to take suitable steps to identify the millets as per food habits in your States/ UTs and include in the Mid Day Meals in preferred frequency

3. It will be highly appreciated, if you could kindly provide information on current position as well as the action taken to promote use of millet under MDMS.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(R.C. MEENA)
