Subject-

Regarding taking extra classes to cover the study loss due to monsoon disaster.

Sir

Whereas, the schools remained closed for quite a considerable period of time because of heavy rain during rainy session, which led to loss of studies of the students. Therefore in order to compensate the loss of studies of students. It has been decided that all the schools will take one hour extra class daily or whereas two or more holidays fall together, teacher may take classes even in one of such holiday.

This direction may be adhered to strictly.
